Day 1

We begin our journey to Northern Indiana this morning with a hot cup of coffee and a snack served by a professional Bianco Tour Director. Our first stop is the Barn Door in Middlebury, IN to view their quilt garden and shop in their rustic boutique shop filled with a unique selection of antiques, vintage charm and repurposed and new furnishings. Lunch is on our own this afternoon in Elkhart before departing for Central Park to view the quilt garden there. Next, we are off to Linton's Enchanted Gardens to view another quilt garden. We also have shopping time here to explore Indiana's largest Home and Garden Center with a variety of beautiful display gardens. This afternoon, we arrive at the Inn at Amish Acres, our home for the night. We spend the evening at Amish Acres. This attraction was created from an 80-acre Old Order Amish Farm featuring a restaurant, world class theater and many shops. A Threshers dinner is included this evening in the Restaurant Barn before we head over to the Round Barn Theater for the show, Plain and Fancy. Celebrating it's 32nd anniversary in the Round Barn Theatre, a New Yorker and his sophisticated girlfriend drive down around Lancaster, Pennsylvania, to sell a piece of property. Here they meet Amish folk, whose convoluted English speech, clothes and habits haven't changed for centuries. The clash of cultures educates and entertains at the same time in this quaint musical comedy.

Day 2

A continental breakfast is included this morning at the Inn along with some time to browse the shops at Amish Acres before departing for Shipshewana. En route, we have an included "Haystack" lunch at the Carriage House. Owner Elaine Jones tells the story of the "Haystack" that's served at Amish fundraisers staged to help out when there's a crisis in the community. Following our delicious lunch, we depart for the Shipshewana Flea Market, the Midwest's largest flea market with nearly 900 booths in 26 outdoor aisles. We have shopping and browsing time here before departing for home. Thank you for traveling with Bianco Tours!
