

A small town with big city sophistication, Ann Arbor frequently ranks high on positive national lists. A close-knit community of charming neighborhoods with a rich mix of cultures, it's also home to world-class educational and high-tech research centers nestled in a peaceful rural setting. The city is perhaps most renowned for its cultural offerings and competitive collegiate sports teams.

YOUR BIANCO TOUR INCLUDES:

Round Trip Transportation - Via deluxe highway motorcoach. Equipped with reclining seats, overhead storage, and a restroom for your comfort and convenience.

“The Big House” (Docent-led tour) - Tour highlights include the field, game day locker room, press box and club and suite levels. * Tour highlights are subject to change depending on events scheduled at the stadium.

Gandy Dancer (Included lunch) - Situated in the beautifully restored 1886 Michigan Central Depot, Gandy Dancer is an architectural landmark as well as an elegant restaurant known for creative preparations of seafood, steaks and pasta.

Creature Conservancy (Included program) - Currently provides homes to more than 400 individual animals from about 100 different species. These animals are former exotic pets, injured non-releasable wildlife, or animals acquired from USDA-approved establishments to become educational ambassadors. Our goal is to educate people of all ages about wildlife, fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation that encourages a stronger commitment to environmental protection.
