Great Lakes National Cemetery (drive through) - Great Lakes National Cemetery is a United States National Cemetery established in 2005 and is one of two national cemeteries in Michigan, the other being Fort Custer. A place of abundant beauty, the cemetery borders Gagan Lake in Holly. One hundred year old trees line Belford Road, forming a lush canopy that serves as a fitting and stately entrance to the sacred grounds, a final resting place for military veterans. One hundred American flags gently wave in the breeze on the Avenue of Flags, overlooking row upon rows of white marble tombstones. The property's rolling hills are teeming with wildlife, including a magnificent bald eagle that has made the cemetery its home.

Holly Hotel (included lunch) - No longer an Inn, Michigan's Holly Hotel is a nationally-known American restaurant, listed on the United States Register of Historic Places. Located on Battle Aly, this four story, red brick hotel has the essence of award-winning regional and classical cuisine, late Queen Anne Victorian architecture, and a loyal following since 1891.

Mueller's Orchard & Cider Mill - Tour includes a donut, glass of cider and a wagon ride through the orchard (pick one apple from the orchard during the wagon ride.) The Mueller family has been inviting guests to visit the orchard in Linden, MI for 70 years. A trip to the orchard is not complete without a stop in to the Farm Market. It's brimming with apple butter, jams and jellies, gourmet orchard products, local honey and much more.
