HISTORIC PRISON TOUR

YOUR BIANCO TOUR INCLUDES:

Round Trip Transportation - Via deluxe highway motorcoach. Equipped with reclining seats, overhead storage, and a restroom for your comfort and convenience.

Armory Arts Village - Visit the "Old Prison," now Armory Arts Village, a resident artists' community, for a tour "From Historic Prison to Artistic Vision." Experience more tales of this intriguing prison history while visiting the old solitary area, viewing murals depicting the unique prison history and painted by two resident muralists. Enter the brick, mortar, and stone Grand Gallery with its windows still lined by prison bars and built entirely by prison labor. Meet an artist in a studio formerly a cell block, and see an apartment, once 36 cells. You will definitely hear the echoes of thousands of inmates past. Prison tour concludes in the Grand Gallery/Old Prison Gift Shop where you can purchase souvenirs of your prison tour as well as arts, crafts and jewelry from resident artists.

Steve's Ranch (included lunch) - You will have a choice of meals, which you will select from below: ❶ Mess Hall Gobbler (roasted turkey breast on Kaiser bun); ❷ The Contraband (stacked ham and swiss cheese on a Kaiser bun); ❸ The Fish - A First Timer (tuna salad on a Kaiser bun).

Cell Block 7 Museum - When Michigan's first prison became too small to house its increasing population, a new modern penitentiary was planned. It was completed in 1934 and soon became the largest walled prison in the world with over 5,000 inmates. Until 2007, Cell Block 7 was an active part of the penitentiary. It's hard to imagine how it must have felt to spend your days confined to a small cell. To be told when to sleep, to rise, to bathe, to eat, to work. Inmates staged riots to demand better conditions. Countless convicts risked their lives to escape. They climbed over walls, tunneled under walls; one even made off in a helicopter - right from this prison. While you're spending time at Cell Block 7, you won't have to try to imagine prison life; you'll feel it, experience it; and it's as close to prison as you'll ever want to get. The Cell Block 7 Prison Museum is independently operated by the Ella Sharp Museum.
