

Quilt Garden Tour

IN THE HEART OF NORTHERN INDIANA'S AMISH COUNTRY

YOUR BIANCO TOUR INCLUDES:

Round Trip Transportation - Via deluxe highway motorcoach. Equipped with reclining seats, overhead storage, and a restroom for your comfort and convenience.

Barn Door Quilt Garden (shopping & quilt garden viewing) - Explore a unique selection of quality antiques, vintage charm, repurposed and new furnishings in a rustic boutique setting.

Das Dutchmen Essenhaus (included Threshers Lunch) - Far and wide, their family-style dining is what they have become best known for. Using genuine Amish recipes passed down through the generations create old-fashioned family traditions in the 21st century. No visitor to Northern Indiana should miss the delectable home style cooking that awaits them here. Das Dutchman also has 5 unique village shops located in original farm buildings.

Krider "World's Fair" Garden - There are several garden features within this 2.4 acre park including the quilt garden.

Shipshewana Flea Market (shopping) - The Shipshewana Flea Market is the Midwest's largest flea market with nearly 900 booths in 26 outdoor aisles, so be prepared for walking. The vendors consist of artisans, crafters, flea market dealers and retail business owners. Finished and unfinished pine furniture, handmade crafts, toys, home decor, handmade jewelry, cleaning products, clothing, homemade jams, jellies and cookies, 14 kt. gold and sterling jewelry are just a few of the products at the show.
