

SUMMER IN THE CITY

Featuring Boston Edison Historical District, Dakota Inn Rathskeller & Rust Belt Market

YOUR BIANCO TOUR INCLUDES:

Round Trip Transportation - Via deluxe highway motorcoach. Equipped with reclining seats, overhead storage, and a restroom for your comfort and convenience.

Guided tour of Boston Edison Historic District - The Boston-Edison Historic District is an instantly recognizable address in the heart of Detroit, containing over 900 homes. Most homes were constructed between 1905 and 1925 and range in size from modest two-story venaculars to impressive mansions. Early residents of Boston-Edison include Henry Ford, James Couzens, Horace Rackham, Sebastian Kresge, Joe Louis, Willie Horton and more! Many of the houses are eclectic, combining elements of various styles. Houses are constructed of genuine natural materials, many of which are not available today or are too expensive to use in new construction. Architects designed each home individually. Skillful craftsmen built them by hand.

Dakota Inn Rathskeller (included lunch) - Karl Kurz, grandfather of present owner Karl E. Kurz, opened the Dakota Inn Rathskeller on August 1, 1933. EIGHTY years later, Detroit's only authentic German bar is still going strong! Your meal choice includes: Bavarian Bratwurst Plate; German Knackwurst Plate; German Style Meatballs; or Vegetarian Plate (3 potato pancakes with red sauerkraut and fresh mixed vegetables).

Rust Belt Market (shopping time) - The Rust Belt Market features carefully curated vintage pieces, from photography to clothing to salvaged furniture. Open only on the weekends, the shop regularly rotates the inventory and hosts a variety of local vendors. This giant retail space also features live music from local musicians. This local hotspot is a must visit for one-of-a-kind Detroit treasures.

*Tour price includes gratuities for above trip inclusions.
