Day 1

This morning we begin our adventure to Grand Rapids, greeted by our professional Bianco driver and tour director. When we arrive in Grand Rapids we will meet with our local step on guide who will take us on a tour of the city. Enjoy a mix of history, culture, and architecture as we tour Grand Rapids. Learn about what makes this city so unique with stories from its past and present. We will also have the opportunity to tour the Meyer May House and the 1914 mansion. We will then check into our hotel - the Drury Suites and have dinner at their evening kickback. After a time to relax, we will head to the Lantern Festival at the John Ball Zoo. The Grand Rapids Lantern Festival is a truly breathtaking experience for all ages. John Ball Zoo is the first and only place you can see these incredible works of art in Michigan. The festival features handcrafted Asian lantern displays that will illuminate the Zoo and tell the intersecting story of wildlife and Asian culture. Over 500 handcrafted illuminated sculptures, glowing tunnels, interactive elements, and giant animal/mythical displays.

Day 2

Today we will continue to experience the beauty and history of Grand Rapids. We will begin our day with a tour on the Grand Lady Riverboat. We will learn about the river and wildlife and also the history of the steamboats and their role in developing this amazing city. After our riverboat ride, our history filled journey will continue at the Sweet House historic mansion. This Italianate mansion was built in the mid-1860s by Martin Sweet for him and his family, wife Desdemona Sweet and their three children Mattie, Cassius, and Frank. Enjoy lunch and a docent led tour of this mansion before we return home. We hope to see you again on our next exciting Bianco Tour!
